MURDER AND SUICIDE

HENRY TOWNSEND EDSON KILLS
MRS. FANNIE PULLEN AND ENDS HIS OWN LIFE.

WOMAN REFUSED TO ELOPE

TRAGEDY BRINGS OUT THE FACT THAT EDSON WAS SUSPECTED OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

New York, Sept. 3.—Henry Townsend Edson, son of Franklin Edson, formerly mayor of New York City, in his apartments at 292 West Ninety-second street, Wednesday shot and instantly killed Mrs. Fannie Pullen of 673 West End avenue and then shot and killed himself. The murder and suicide appear to have been premeditated and followed a dramatic scene in which Edson asked Mrs. Pullen, a close and honored friend of his wife and family, to desert her husband and children and fly with him to another state. Mrs. Pullen was a beautiful woman and is said to have been the daughter of a United States naval officer.

The tragedy brought out the fact that Edson, who was comptroller of St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal church, had been suspected of misappropriating funds belonging to the parish, and that expert accountants were at work on his accounts. It was also declared by those related to the family that Edson was financially distressed because of Wall street speculations.

Members of the Edson family insist that Edson was insane. There are many indications that Edson was madly in love with Mrs. Pullen. On the body of the man was found the following letter:

Letter to Mrs. Pullen.

"Mrs. Pullen, Darling: Trust John implicitly. He will always be a go-between and faithful. I know him thoroughly. He will tell you where I am waiting for you, to see your sweet face once more before I go. I am going far away, far away, but will die true to you, no matter how long I live. I shall lead a new life, and an honest one, and if I can ever come back to you with my past cleaned up, I will, dearest. Oh, my God, let me see and speak to you once more before I go. I cannot go until you do. I hope and pray that you put in today's personal. Anyway I answered it in tomorrow's. I hope you see it. I cannot sleep. I can only pray and pray that you will come to me once more. Surely you will after all you have been to me for the past ten years. You do love me, darling; I know you do. Come to me once more, darling, if only to say good-bye. I shall wait here until you come, no matter how long. John will tell you my hotel name. Ask clerk for me."

The following "personal" was published in a morning newspaper Tuesday:

"B. Loyal—Nothing in answer to message; be good to me; worried about you; send word today; just as true to you as always; with love."

The following, evidently a reply to the foregoing, appeared Wednesday morning:

Answers a Personal.

"Fanny: I am loyal and true; cannot go till I see you; trust John; he will tell you where I am; with love."

These are believed to be the "personals" referred to.

Mrs. Pullen lived with her husband, John F. Pullen, an auditor at the Grand Central station, and her two children, Trafton, sixteen years old, and Mary, fourteen years old.

The Edsons were to break up their home Wednesday morning as a result of an agreement to sign articles of separation, reached the night before. The life of the pair had not been happy.

Mrs. Edson spent Tuesday night with her friend, Mrs. Pullen. She was about to go out in the morning when a note came from Edson asking that Mrs. Pullen accompany his wife to see him. Edson, his wife, Mrs. Pullen and Dr. David O. Edson, a brother, met in Edson's home. During a conversation in the diningroom, Edson is said to have turned to Mrs. Pullen and suggested that she leave her home with him and go to some other state, where they could be happy. Mrs. Edson was horrified. Mrs. Pullen turned away in disgust. Dr. Edson, after sharply rebuking his brother, left the room with Mrs. Edson, but both returned in a few minutes and Edson again turned to Mrs. Pullen and began to entreat her to elope with him. Mrs. Pullen.

Possessed With Fear of the Man, ran out of the room. Edson changed the subject and all went into the diningroom again. A few moments afterward, Mrs. Edson, weak and trembling, was assisted to another room by Dr. Edson. A moment later, according to Wood, a furniture mover, who was working in the hallway, Edson drew a revolver from his pocket and, pointing it at Mrs. Pullen, shouted: "You must go with me. If you don't elope with me I'll see that you go with me anyway."

Mrs. Pullen started to run from the room. She had gone only a few steps when four pistol shots rang out. The first bullet tore Mrs. Pullen's left cheek, and the second entered the right side of the head, killing her.

According to Wood, Edson looked at the woman for a moment, and then turned the revolver to his own head, firing two shots. Both bullets entered about the middle of the forehead and he fell, his head striking and resting on Mrs. Pullen's feet.

At the first shot Dr. Edson and Mrs. Edson rushed to the door of the diningroom, reaching there just as Edson fired the shots which ended his own life. Mrs. Edson fell to the floor in a faint.

Coroner Jackson, after making a thorough examination of the house, said that the evidence showed that the murder and suicide were premeditated; that he had found letters and other papers in Edson's possession which showed that he had had a love affair.

Brands Edson as a Defaulter.

Mr. Pullen, who is a vestryman of St. Michael's church, made a statement in which he branded Edson as a defaulter and forger and said that he had stolen from the funds of St. Michael's church. He also declared that Edson had attempted to kill Mrs. Edson, but missed and killed Mrs. Pullen by error.

Mr. Pullen's statement was not borne out by the investigation of Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon, who found powder marks on the dead woman's face, showing that the pistol must have been close to her.

Dr. Cyrus Edson said that the intimations of improper relations between his brother and Mrs. Pullen were absolutely false. His brother, he said, had recently been acting strangely and had admitted that he was involved in financial difficulties. His family had become so alarmed over Edson's mental condition that arrangements had been made to have him examined by an alienist.

The shooting, Dr. Edson declared, was committed in a moment of 'maniacal frenzy.'

CLAIM RATIONS ARE POOR.

Men of Lighthouse Tender Hyacinth Go on Strike.

Milwaukee, Sept. 3.—In anger at the alleged poor rations served aboard their vessel, the crew of the United States lighthouse tender Hyacinth struck last night. The Hyacinth is the supply boat for many lighthouses on Lake Michigan, and safety of navigation on the lake depends on the ship's being kept regularly in service.

Boy Burned to Death.

St. Paul, Sept. 3.—Earl Baw, four years old, was burned to death in the loft of a barn in the rear of his home, 265 East Ninth street, yesterday afternoon at 4:30. The charred body of the little fellow, from which every vestige of clothing had been singed, was found by the firemen when they entered the loft to fight the fire. It is supposed that he accidentally started the fire.

Lost a Wager and Suicided.

Creston, Ia., Sept. 3.—A. B. Row of Clarinda shot and killed himself Wednesday because his horse, K. C., had lost a race and he had lost a wager of $100.

STEAMER BLOWN UP

THREE EXPLOSIONS OCCUR ON AN AUSTRIAN VESSEL IN TURKISH WATERS.

TWENTY-NINE MEET DEATH

DESTRUCTION OF THE SHIP SAID TO BE THE WORK OF THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

Constantinople, Sept. 3.—Three explosions Wednesday on the Austrian steamer Vaskapu soon after it left the Bulgarian port of Burgas, en route for Constantinople, killed twenty-nine persons. The vessel caught fire and had to be beached.

A telegram conveying this news was received by the agent of the Hungarian Levant line to which the Vaskapu belongs. The telegram said the Vaskapu had been destroyed in the Black sea. The captain and officers of the steamer and six of the crew were killed. The Vaskapu sailed from Varna, Bulgaria, and after calling at Burgas, was steaming through the Black sea to Constantinople when three explosions took place on board. The deck of the vessel took fire and she had to be run ashore at Misivria bay, eighteen miles north of Burgas.

The Vaskapu belonged to the Hungarian Levant Steamship company of Fiume, Austria, and has been engaged in the Black Sea service. She was built in Newcastle in 1891 and was a steamer of 1976 tons.

The destruction of the Vaskapu is said to be a revolutionary outrage. It is said that the bomb was timed to burst while the steamer was in the port of Constantinople, but owing to the vessel being twenty hours late in starting from Varna, the explosion occurred off Misivria bay.

Among the missing and supposed to have been blown overboard is Herr Lendvay, belonging to the head office of the steamship company.

WARNS FOREIGN EMBASSIES.

Porte Says Bulgarians Are Projecting Outrages Against Them.

Constantinople, Sept. 3.—The porte has sent a note to the foreign embassies and legations informing them that according to police information, the Bulgarian agitators are projecting outrages against the embassies, legations and other public buildings in Constantinople.

The Ottoman government has taken precautions and requests the heads of the foreign missions to do likewise.

It is said that the Turkish commanders are adopting Lord Kitchener's tactics in the Transvaal by making drives in the Kikiliss district and elsewhere with the idea of destroying or driving the insurgent bands over the Bulgarian frontier.

The authorities at Smyrna are refusing to call out more Redifs, those last summoned to the colors having deserted en masse because they received no pay.

The revolutionary movement in Monastir gives indications of extinguishment. Boris Sarafoff, who is now at the head of the two sections of the Macedonian general committee, has severely reproved the Monastir committee for its inactivity.

Fifteen Bulgarian villages have been burned between Kilsura and Kastoria.

The insurgents in the district of Adrianople appear to be less active. The Turks are pouring in an overwhelming force and the revolutionaries are taking refuge in the mountains.

The insurgents, it is reported, have captured the seaport of Ahtaboly, near Vasiliko on the Black sea, and the Turkish population has fled to Constantinople.

SENSATIONAL RUMORS.

Portion of Adrianople Blown Up and the Other Part in Flames.

Vienna, Sept. 3.—The Belgrade papers are again spreading sensational rumors that a portion of the town of Adrianople has been blown up and that the other part is burning. No confirmation of these reports is obtainable here.

TALKS TO BUSINESS MEN.

Secretary Shaw Discusses the Financial Question.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Two hundred business men from all parts of the country listened to Secretary Shaw of the treasury talk on "The Business Outlook" at a banquet given last night at the Auditorium hotel by the National Association of Merchants and Travelers. Lyman J. Gage addressed the association on the same subject just before his retirement from the treasury department and great interest was attached to the speech of the present secretary. In his discussion of the financial question, Secretary Shaw declared that what was needed was not an elastic dollar, but some provisions by which, automatically, the aggregate volume of dollars would increase whenever and wherever more dollars were needed and would be promptly retired when not needed.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriages nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish cares and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

Mrs. Fred Vnrath,

No. 228 Territorial Street, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Mrs. Fred Vnrath.

hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

The story of the drowning of a little babe at Brainerd by George Dill, while its mother stood quietly by and made no effort to rescue her innocent little child, is a picture which it is hard to recall. It is hard to imagine a mother so lost to mother-love, as a party to such a terrible crime. And the worse than fiend of a man who would deliberately take the sleeping babe from its mother's arm and throw it into the river, has richly earned any punishment which may overtake him—no matter how swift or terrible. The world can well do without such ghouls as George Dill and such unnatural mothers as Mary Williams.—St. Cloud Times.

VETERANS ON PARADE.

Army of the Philippines Marches in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Sept. 2.—Despite the rain and threatening weather the grand parade in connection with the Philippine Army rearguard was pulled off on schedule time and thousands of citizens crowded every thoroughfare to cheer the soldiers, old and young, who formed the imposing line.

There were about 1,500 marching men in line, including the grizzled veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, the stalwart boys of the state militia, the briskly-stepping soldiers of the regular army and the dashing boys in khaki, the veterans of the Spanish-American war.

It was one of the finest parades ever given in St. Paul.

The Army of the Philippines reassembled during the afternoon at the state capitol. The election of officers was taken up. General Charles King of Milwaukee was the choice for president; Colonel J. W. Polk, first vice president; Captain C. E. Clark, Colorado, second; Brigadier General N. S. Metcalfe, Kansas, third; Captain H. A. Crow, Pennsylvania, fourth; Major D. L. Fairchild, Jr., Iowa, fifth; Major P. J. H. Farrell, Illinois, sixth; E. A. Fouts, Missouri, secretary; J. E. White, Illinois, treasurer; Captain James Nally, Nebraska, chaplain.

In his address at the campfire at the People's church at night, General King said the Eastern soldier was the finest in the world—on parade, but the biggest cry baby in the Philippines; and that the soldier from the Western states was the one who did the fighting and won honor and glory for his country without complaint.

August Bye Brought from Beltrami and is Committed by Judge McClenahan.

WAS A PRISONER IN JAIL THERE

And Brooding Over the Crime He Had Committed His Mind Became Deranged.

August Bye was the name given by the man who was brought down from the north this morning from Bemidji by Deputy Sheriff Bailey, of Beltrami county, and there was a rather unusual hearing before Judge McClenahan in his case.

It seems that the man was a prisoner in the Beltrami county jail, having been held to the grand jury on the charge of assault in the second degree. Brooding over the matter in jail, and as he claims, having been told by some of the prisoners incarcerated with him, that the man whom he assaulted had died, Bye's mind gave way and he made several attempts to kill himself. Yesterday he jumped from the top of his cell to a hard stone floor, headfirst, and would have killed himself had not an attendant been close at hand.

It being shown before the court that the man was mentally unbalanced and that he would not have the mental capacity to appear in the case of the state against him, Judge McClenahan ordered him committed to the insane asylum at Fergus Falls.

It seems that there is a law which gives the district judge the power to issue an order to this effect when it is shown that a prisoner is incapacitated without consulting with any of the other authorities.

Bye, when the assault was committed, was bartender for a man at Blackduck. A row in this saloon one night resulted in an assault on one of the occupants by Bye and the latter's arrest followed.

The man lived in Brainerd for five years up to January last and worked in the woods for some time for F. C. Bolin. He is quite well known here.

ARGUMENTS HANDED IN.
American and British Counsel File Documents in Boundary Case.

London, Sept. 3.—The arguments of the United States and Great Britain, based on the cases and counter-cases in the Alaskan boundary arbitration already filed, were submitted during the day by counsel of the two governments to the Alaskan boundary commissioners.

One of the Canadian counsel said after reading the American brief that it was a strong document but he thought Great Britain had a fighting chance.

It is expected that the next meeting of the commissioners will be brief and merely for the purpose of organization and fixing a date for hearing the oral arguments, though it is possible that application relative to matters connected with the general Alaskan question may be made at the meeting, which will be private. It will then be determined if the subsequent meetings shall be public or private.

Ambassador Choate gave a dinner in the evening to Chief Justice Alverstone and the boundary commissioners.

Chief Justice Alverstone will be chosen chairman of the commission which will assemble in the cabinet room of the foreign office. An adjournment for a fortnight will then be taken to allow counsel to prepare their oral arguments.

There is a disposition on the part of all the commissioners to hasten the conclusion of the case and it is now believed that the award will be rendered by the middle of October.

TO ESTABLISH COMPETITION.

Object of the Packing Company Organized by Stockmen.

Kansas City, Sept. 3.—The Western cattlemen who purpose to build a packinghouse of their own held a meeting Wednesday and agreed on articles of incorporation for their packing company. The articles will be filed in Arizona, because, the lawyers say, they can get better privileges there than elsewhere.

There is to be a sort of voting trust organized to handle a controlling portion of the stock. The intention is to have 51 per cent placed in the hands of trustees. Trustees certificates will be issued instead of stock certificates. The cattlemen say they can raise the money to buy the stock among themselves, although it will be put on the market.

C. F. Martin, secretary of the National Livestock association, says the purpose of the company is not so much to fight the packing houses now in existence as to establish competition and to make the packers pay a reasonable price for cattle.

It seems that there is a law which gives the district judge the power to issue an order to this effect when it is shown that a prisoner is incapacitated without consulting with any of the other authorities.

Bye, when the assault was committed, was bartender for a man at Blackduck. A row in this saloon one night resulted in an assault on one of the occupants by Bye and the latter's arrest followed.

The man lived in Brainerd for five years up to January last and worked in the woods for some time for F. C. Bolin. He is quite well known here.

ARGUMENTS HANDED IN.

American and British Counsel File Documents in Boundary Case.

London, Sept. 3.—The arguments of the United States and Great Britain, based on the cases and counter-cases in the Alaskan boundary arbitration already filed, were submitted during the day by counsel of the two governments to the Alaskan boundary commissioners.

One of the Canadian counsel said after reading the American brief that it was a strong document but he thought Great Britain had a fighting chance.

It is expected that the next meeting of the commissioners will be brief and merely for the purpose of organization and fixing a date for hearing the oral arguments, though it is possible that application relative to matters connected with the general Alaskan question may be made at the meeting, which will be private. It will then be determined if the subsequent meetings shall be public or private.

Ambassador Choate gave a dinner in the evening to Chief Justice Alverstone and the boundary commissioners.

Chief Justice Alverstone will be chosen chairman of the commission which will assemble in the cabinet room of the foreign office. An adjournment for a fortnight will then be taken to allow counsel to prepare their oral arguments.

There is a disposition on the part of all the commissioners to hasten the conclusion of the case and it is now believed that the award will be rendered by the middle of October.

TO ESTABLISH COMPETITION.

Object of the Packing Company Organized by Stockmen.

Kansas City, Sept. 3.—The Western cattlemen who purpose to build a packinghouse of their own held a meeting Wednesday and agreed on articles of incorporation for their packing company. The articles will be filed in Arizona, because the lawyers say, they can get better privileges there than elsewhere.

There is to be a sort of voting trust organized to handle a controlling portion of the stock. The intention is to have 51 per cent placed in the hands of trustees. Trustees certificates will be issued instead of stock certificates. The cattlemen say they can raise the money to buy the stock among themselves, although it will be put on the market.

C. F. Martin, secretary of the National Livestock association, says the purpose of the company is not so much to fight the packing houses now in existence as to establish competition and to make the packers pay a reasonable price for cattle.

One Good Reason.

"No, Jimmie, I am not going to Maggie Mulligan's party! The Mulligans ain't in our set, an' I don't like Maggie, an' I've got nuthin' to wear, an' besides, I ain't been invited, anyhow!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CROW WING'S FAIR FOR THE YEAR 1903

Some Good Events for this Year's Fair at the Swartz Driving Park.

DATES ARE SEPT. 9, 10 and 11

An Excellent Means to Exhibit Samples of Varied Resources of County.

The thirteenth annual fair of the Crow Wing County Agricultural society will be held in this city on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next, September 9, 10 and 11, and the members of the society expect to make the event one of special interest to all residents of the county interested in its welfare.

Crow Wing county, with its varied resources, has shown to good advantage at former fairs held in this city. The exhibits have not been as numerous as in some of the older counties, but what the farmers have brought together would compare favorably with any county in the state. The object of these fairs is a praiseworthy one; to encourage the farmers to make special efforts to develop the great natural resources and to exhibit them in such a way that they will advertise the county and thus not only benefit the farms but indirectly benefit everyone living in the county.

In addition to the regular premiums there will be many special premiums given by individuals and firms. There is also expected to be some special trotting and running events.

The following will be the superintendents of the different divisions:

Division A, horses, Major Ruffee. Division B, cattle, George McCullough.

Division C, sheep, Robert McGee.

Division D, swine, H. Hughey.

Division E, poultry, Henry Wise and John Lind.

Division F, furniture and mercantile department, A. L. Hoffman.

Division G, flowers and fruits, David Archibald.

Division H, products of field and garden, Frank Anderson.

Division I, fine arts, Mrs. W. Hemstead.

Division J, textile fabrics, Mrs. H. I. Cohen.

Division K, dairy and breadstuffs, Mrs. E. M. Phelps.

Division L, miscellaneous, John Aikinson.

It is expected this year that the exhibits of horses and cattle will be especially good. Supt. Ruffee, of the horse division, is working up an interest and it is thought that there will be a good number of exhibitors. The cattle division is also sure to be very good.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such in brief was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by H. P. Dunn & Co. druggists.

MANY INTERESTING EVENTS.

Grand Industrial Parade in the Morning will be a Feature of the Day.

Some $1,000 have been collected for prizes and there will be some excellent sporting events.

The big industrial parade will come off in the morning at 10 o'clock and it is anticipated that there will be a good representation of the business men in this parade. The parade will be typical of the manufacturing and mercantile resources of the city and of the various civic and secret societies.

The Marine band will discourse music throughout the day and there will be a big dance at Gardner hall in the evening.

There will be a big hose race at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and three companies will compete.

Addresses will be delivered by Rev. S. W. Hoyer and J. P. Boyle, of this city, and Mrs. M. M. Stewart, of Duluth.

It is understood that Aitkin has engaged Martin, the Crookston twirler in the Northern League to pitch one of the games, and that they will have another catcher. The locals will also be there with the goods, and two good games may be expected.

M'CLEARY ON CURRENCY.

Minnesota Congressman Discusses the Financial Question.

Minneapolis, Sept. 3.—Congressman
J. T. McCleary has returned from a trip to Hawaii. The congressman is
a member of the appropriations committee. He said in regard to the attitude of the next session of congress
toward financial and currency questions:

"Every careful student of American
affairs knows that this is the one
great civilized country in the world
which experiences financial panics.
When I say financial panics, I mean a
different thing from commercial depression. In a commercial depression
men curtail their business and do not care to use capital.

"In a financial panic, on the other
hand, men engaged in legitimate enterprises and with their affairs in perfectly solvent conditions are unable to obtain at the banks the credit to
which they are accustomed and entitled. Through this condition perfectly solvent concerns are driven to
what should be done.

"Thoughtful men all over the country
realize that our financial system has not yet been perfected. The fruity is that among financial experts
there is a marked disagreement as to
what should be done.

AFTER THE PRESIDENT

INSANE MAN, ARMED WITH A RE-VOLVER, WANTED TO SEE THE
CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

ARRESTED ON THIRD CALL

THE EXAMINING PHYSICIANS DE-CLARE HIM DEMENTED AND HE IS INCARCERATED.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 3.—A man
giving his name as Henry Wellbrenner
was arrested at Sagamore Hill while
making a persistent demand to see President Roosevelt. The man was
armed with a revolver, fully loaded.
He was taken to the village and placed
in the town prison.

Shortly after 10 p. m. Wellbrenner
drove to Sagamore Hill in a phaeton
buggy. He was stopped by the secret service operative on duty. Wellbren-ner said he had a personal engagement
with the president and desired to see
him. As it was long after the hours
when visitors are received the officer
declined to permit him to go to the house. The man insisted but the officer
turned him away.

Soon after Wellbrenner returned
and again insisted that he be allowed
to see the president if only for a minute. This time he was ordered away
and told not to return.

Just before 11 o'clock the man returned a third time and demanded of
the officer that he be permitted to see
the president at once. The officer's response was to take the man from
his buggy and put him in the stables,
where he was placed under the guard
of two stablemen. A revolver was found in the buggy. Later Wellbren-ner was brought to the village and
locked up.

Wellbrenner was arraigned during
the day before Justice Franklin on
complaint of the secret service operative who placed him under arrest.

Justice Franklin questioned the prisoner about his movements the previous evening. His replies were made in a quiet tone of voice, but they indicated apparently beyond a doubt that the man is crazy. He said he wanted
to marry Miss Alice Roosevelt.

Wellbrenner Declared Insane.

The examination of Wellbrenner
was continued in the afternoon. Dr.
George A. Stewart and Dr. Irving S.
Barnes conducted the examination.
Wellbrenner was declared by them to be insane. He was taken to Mineola, Long Island, on an evening train and
placed in the custody of the county
authorities.

It appears that President Roosevelt
was aware of the trouble the secret service officer had with Wellbrenner.
After the man had been turned back
the second time, despite his insistence
that he had an engagement with the president, the officer inquired of the president about the fellow. Mr. Roosevelt was in his library, only a short distance from the spot where the officer had stopped Wellbrenner's horse.
He told the officer he had no engagement with anybody.

When Wellbrenner returned a third time with a demand that he be permitted to see the president, the officer
seized him and drew him out of the vehicle over the front wheel. The noise
of the scuffle attracted the president's attention. He appeared at the door overlooking the driveway from the veranda as Wellbrenner was taken into the stables, but returned to the library almost immediately.

Wellbrenner has been practicing with his revolver recently, but he would give no reason for his interest
in marksmanship and said he could
not shoot very well.

It is thought that hard work and
trouble over a mortgage on his father's
farm had something to do with unsettling Wellbrenner's mind.

DID NOT CROSS THE LINE.

Lack of Wind Prevents Race Between
Reliance and Shamrock.

New York, Sept. 3.—The fourth attempt to sail what was expected to be
the concluding race between the Reliance and Shamrock III. failed miserably Wednesday. They were not even sent across the line. Both boats were towed out to Sandy Hook lightship in
a dense fog and flat calm at 10:30 a.
m., and then waited two hours in the hope of a wind from some other direction than the east to blow away the fog and give them speed enough to cover thirty miles within five and a half hours. At 12:30 o'clock the attempt was abandoned and announcement made that another would be
made today.

SHORT HALF A MILLION.

Prominent Baltimore Man Goes to
Central America.

Baltimore, Sept. 3.—William T.
Tucker, joint trustee with his mother
of the estate of his father, the late Wesley A. Tucker, is said to have disappeared from his home. It is said
that on the return from Europe recently of his mother, whence she had
been summoned by relatives, a shortage amounting to upward of $500,000
was found in Tucker's accounts. He is said to be in Central America at present. Tucker, who is about thirty-five years old, is a member of several of the leading clubs of Baltimore. It
is said he has been dealing in stocks
for several months.

KILLS HIS PARTNER.

Aloysius Cavanaugh Then Takes His

ington Grove, Md., a patient in a sanitarium near Baltimore, last night shot
and instantly killed his business partner, M. H. Guiney of Washington, D. C., and then shot and killed himself. Cava-

Warship at Korean Port.

London, Sept. 3.—The Tien Tsin correspondent of the Standard telegraphs
the report that the steamer Stanley
Dollar has been seized by a Japanese
man-of-war because it did not have permission of Korea to trade in lumber.
A dispatch from Peking Tuesday
said the Stanley Dollar, formerly a Danish vessel, but now owned by an American, which was sent by a Russian company from Tien Tsin to Yongampo, at the mouth of the Yalu
river, Korea, for a cargo of lumber
from the Russian concession on the Yalu river, was prevented from entering Yongampo by a Japanese gunboat
whose commander said Yongampo was
not an open port and that foreign vessels had no right to enter it.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Directors of the

tors, all women, and will crown, as successful, efforts to treat diseases
without the use of alcohol.

Knapp Refused New Trial.

Hamilton, O., Sept. 3.—Judge Bel-
den has refused a new trial for Alfred
A. Knapp, the self-confessed murderer
of two of his wives and three other victims. The court fixed Dec. 12 for the execution. Knapp took the decision with indifference and made no
statement. He will be taken to Columbus for electrocution.

M'CLEARY ON CURRENCY.
Minnesota Congressman Discusses the
Financial Question.
Minneapolis, Sept. 3.—Congressman
J. T. McCleary has returned from a trip to Hawaii. The congressman is
a member of the appropriations committee. He said in regard to the attitude of the next session of congress
toward financial and currency questions:
"Every careful student of American
affairs knows that this is the one
great civilized country in the world
which experiences financial panics.
When I say financial panics, I mean a
different thing from commercial depression. In a commercial depression
men curtail their business and do not
care to use capital.
"In a financial panic, on the other
hand, men engaged in legitimate enterprises and with their affairs in perfectly solvent conditions are unable
to obtain at the banks the credit to
which they are accustomed and entitled. Through this condition perfectly solvent concerns are driven to the wall.
"Thoughtful men all over the country realize that our financial system
has not yet been perfected. The difficulty is that among financial experts
there is a marked disagreement as to
what should be done.
"It seems probable that certain phases of the question will come up in congress within the next year."

spirited contest. The letters and pe-

AFTER THE PRESIDENT

INSANE MAN, ARMED WITH A RE-VOLVER, WANTED TO SEE THE
CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

ARRESTED ON THIRD CALL

THE EXAMINING PHYSICIANS DE-CLARE HIM DEMENTED AND HE IS INCARCERATED.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 3.—A man
giving his name as Henry Weibrenner
was arrested at Sagamore Hill while
making a persistent demand to see President Roosevelt. The man was
armed with a revolver, fully loaded.
He was taken to the village and placed
in the town prison.

Shortly after 10 p. m. Weibrenner
drove to Sagamore Hill in a phaeton
buggy. He was stopped by the secret service operative on duty. Weibren-
ner said he had a personal engagement
with the president and desired to see
him. As it was long after the hours
when visitors are received the officer
declined to permit him to go to the house. The man insisted but the officer
turned him away.

Soon after Weibrenner returned
and again insisted that he be allowed
to see the president if only for a minute. This time he was ordered away
and told not to return.

Just before 11 o'clock the man returned a third time and demanded of
the officer that he be permitted to see
the president at once. The officer's
response was to take the man from
his buggy and put him in the stables,
where he was placed under the guard
of two stablemen. A revolver was found in the buggy. Later Weibren-ner was brought to the village and
locked up.

Weibrenner was arraigned during
the day before Justice Franklin on
complaint of the secret service operative who placed him under arrest.

Justice Franklin questioned the prisoner about his movements the previous evening. His replies were made
in a quiet tone of voice, but they indicated apparently beyond a doubt that
the man is crazy. He said he wanted
to marry Miss Alice Roosevelt.

Weibrenner Declared Insane.

The examination of Weibrenner
was continued in the afternoon. Dr.
George A. Stewart and Dr. Irving S.
Harnes conducted the examination.
Weibrenner was declared by them to be insane. He was taken to Minnola,
Long Island, on an evening train and
placed in the custody of the county
authorities.

It appears that President Roosevelt
was aware of the trouble the secret service officer had with Weibrenner.
After the man had been turned back
the second time, despite his insistence
that he had an engagement with the
president, the officer inquired of the president about the fellow. Mr. Roosevelt was in his library, only a short distance from the spot where the officer had stopped Weibrenner's horse.
He told the officer he had no engagement with anybody.

When Weibrenner returned a third
time with a demand that he be permitted to see the president, the officer
seized him and drew him out of the vehicle over the front wheel. The noise
of the scuffle attracted the president's attention. He appeared at the door overlooking the driveway from the veranda as Weibrenner was taken into the stables, but returned to the
library, almost immediately.

Weibrenner has been practicing
with his revolver recently, but he
would give no reason for his interest
in marksmanship and said he could
not shoot very well.
It is thought that hard work and
trouble over a mortgage on his father's
farm had something to do with unsettling Weibrenner's mind.

DID NOT CROSS THE LINE.

Lack of Wind Prevents Race Between
Reliance and Shamrock.

New York, Sept. 3.—The fourth attempt to sail what was expected to be
the concluding race between the Reliance and Shamrock III, failed miserably Wednesday. They were not even sent across the line. Both boats were towed out to Sandy Hook lightship in
a dense fog and flat calm at 10:30 a.
m., and then waited two hours in the hope of a wind from some other direction than the east to blow away the fog and give them speed enough to
cover thirty miles within five and a half hours. At 12:30 o'clock the attempt was abandoned and announcement made that another would be
made today.

SHORT HALF A MILLION.

Prominent Baltimore Man Goes to Central America.

Baltimore, Sept. 3.—William T.
Tucker, joint trustee with his mother
of the estate of his father, the late
Wesley A. Tucker, is said to have disappeared from his home. It is said
that on the return from Europe recently of his mother, whence she had
been summoned by relatives, a short-
age amounting to upward of $500,000
was found in Tucker's accounts. He
is said to be in Central America at present. Tucker, who is about thirty-
five years old, is a member of several
of the leading clubs of Baltimore. It
is said he has been dealing in stocks
for several months.

KILLS HIS PARTNER.

Aloysius Cavanaugh Then Takes His Own Life.

Baltimore, Sept. 3.—Aloysius Cavanough, twenty-six years old, of Washington Grove, Md., a patient in a sanitarium near Baltimore, last night shot
and instantly killed his business partner, M. H. Guiney of Washington, D.
C., and then shot and killed himself.
Cavanaugh was under treatment for nervous trouble, and his partner was in attendance on him.

AMERICAN VESSEL SEIZED.

The Stanley Dollar Taken by Japanese Warship at Korean Port.

London, Sept. 3.—The Tien Tsin correspondent of the Standard telegraphs
the report that the steamer Stanley
Dollar has been seized by a Japanese
man-of-war because it did not have per-
mission of Korea to trade in lumber.
A dispatch from Peking Tuesday
said the Stanley Dollar, formerly a Danish vessel, but now owned by an American, which was sent by a Russian company from Tien Tsin to Yongampo, at the mouth of the Yalu
river, Korea, for a cargo of lumber
from the Russian concession on the Yalu river, was prevented from enter-
ing Yongampo by a Japanese gunboat
whose commander said Yongampo was
not an open port and that foreign vessels had no right to enter it.

Treat Disease Without Alcohol.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Directors of the Frances B. Willard National Temperance hospital have decided to erect a $75,000 hospital in Chicago. The building will be the culmination of nineteen years' work on the part of the directors, all women, and will crown, as
successful, efforts to treat diseases
without the use of alcohol.

Knapp Refused New Trial.

Hamilton, O., Sept. 3.—Judge Bel-
den has refused a new trial for Alfred
A. Knapp, the self-confessed murderer
of two of his wives and three other
victims. The court fixed Dec. 12 for
the execution. Knapp took the decision with indifference and made no
statement. He will be taken to Columbus for electrocution.
